

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

NEW GALLERY MEMBER

Good Children Gallery is pleased to announce that we will be reviewing submissions for a new member this upcoming year. We are looking for active members who can contribute their best efforts towards the vitality and mission of Good Children Gallery.

As a pioneer artist-run space in the St. Claude Arts District, our mission is aimed at enhancing the cultural landscape of New Orleans. The space serves as a bellwether for artistic endeavors by exhibiting engaging work from local, national, and international artists.

We are seeking two types of applicants:

- Artists
- Non-artists who wish to have a curatorial/administrative role in the gallery. The position would be ideal for someone interested in a career as a gallerist, arts administrator, grant writer, or any other professional position in the arts.

Application guidelines:

- 10 jpegs of artwork or video/audio links. Curators can submit links or images of projects, etc.
- Artist statement or statment related to curatorial/administrative goals- 250 words or less
Statement about why you would like to be a part of Good Children Gallery, and what unique skills/capabilities you can contribute to the gallery- 250 words or less (for example, mention if you can help with social media outreach, grant writing, website management, construction, etc.)
- CV or exhibition history
- Contact information for two references who are not Good Children Gallery members. List names and email or phone number.
- Link to your artist website (optional)
- Please put "Submission/Your Name" in the subject of your application email, and send to goodchildrengallery@gmail.com

A few things to consider before applying:

- Current full-time students (grad or undergrad) are discouraged from applying, unless they are in final year of studies.
- Applicants should live in the New Orleans region, or close enough to the gallery so that they can be present at regular meetings and active in participation for gallery duties.

Please note that montly gallery dues are $90
